With reference to your notification No. A, PR 568/46-49 dt 18/5/49 sanctioning me privilege leave for two months from 3/5/49 with permission to combine Sundays the 3rd June 1949, I have the honour to state that I am due for duty today. But, as some other Officer is posted to the Bangalore District Treasury, and as my posting is not yet known, my leave may kindly be extended by another month. I may kindly be informed early as to where I am posted, so that I may join duty & get the unexpired portion of the leave if any, cancelled. I may mention in this connection that I do not want to come here for the third time, and it is barely a year and a half since I came here. I may therefore be kept on here, in some light work, on account of my recent ill health. This would facilitate the treatment for my wife also who has got some complaint.

Yours obdt
